Description of Face2Face for Arcus Cup 2017.

We will keep us as close as possible to the Dutch concept, however with minor adjustments like set-shooting for recurve.

All archers are divided into pools in advance. 6 archers in each pool. Each archer shoots one match against each of the other 5 archers in the pool. The seeding of the archers will be done from previous year results.

Each match will be of 12 arrows and are shot in 4 x 3 arrow sets/series.

The shooting time is reduced to 90 seconds.

2 matchpoints will be given to the winner of a match, 1 matchpoint to each archer at a draw and 0 matchpoints for a lost match. There will be no shoot off in matches.

Recurve shoots set shooting; 4 sets of 3 arrows. 2 setpoints per set and all 4 sets shall be shot. Highest number of setpoints in a match wins the match and get 2 matchpoints. At a draw of 4-4, each recurve archer will receive 1 matchpoint each.

Compound shoots accumulating score of 12 arrows in each match. Highest score wins and get 2 matchpoints. At equal score, each compound archer gets 1 matchpoint.

When the pool is finished, each archer has shot 60 arrows and hereby also a 60 arrow score.

WA rules apply for equipment and so on.

Shooting form at 24 recurve and 24 compound archers:

In the morning session 24 recurve and 24 compound shoot. They shoot in 4 pools recurve and 4 pools compound. The 12 best recurve and the 12 best compound continues to the afternoon, the rest of the archers are out of the competition.

The 12 archers who continues to the afternoons shooting are found in the following way: The 2 best archers in each pool, measured on matchpoints qualify, regardless of their 60 arrows score. Plus the 4 best "lucky losers" are found on their 60 arrow score. For the "lucky losers" matchpoints are not used to qualify for the afternoon.

The 12 archers will be seeded by their 60 arrows score in new pools.

In the morning session we will shoot alternating AB - CD and only AB in the afternoon session. Due to the limited space in the hall, there will be shot 2 matches at a time at each target. This means that AB shoot their match at the left side and CD shoots their match at the right side of the target. This means that some archers will not stand "perfectly" for their targetface at some matches.

In the afternoon session there will be 12 recurve archers and 12 compound archers in 2 recurve pools and 2 compound pools. The system from morning session is repeated and it will end with a recurve final and a compound final. The 2 archers in each final will be the 2 pool winners by matchpoints. In case of a draw on matchpoints in a pool to qualify for the final, it will be decided by the 60 arrow score from the afternoon session. If this is also equal there will be a shoot off.

Shooting form at 24 men and 12 ladies in respectively recurve and compound:

In the morning session 24 men recurve and 24 men compound shoots and the best 12 in each class qualify for the afternoon session. They shoot as described above. The ladies shoot only in the afternoon session and shoot the same way as the men in the afternoon session.

There will be shot alternating AB – CD all day.

In case of a draw to qualify from the morning session to the afternoon:

At a draw on matchpoints in a pool to qualify for the afternoon, then the archer with the highest 60 arrow score wins. Is this still a draw there will be a shoot off.

At a draw in the 60 arrows score among the lucky losers to qualify, then there is a shoot off (matchpoints will not be used).
